NULIA AND CLOUD REVOLUTION LAUNCH NULIA WORKS PLATFORM PARTNERSHIP

Bringing Nulia Works Digital Enablement to Cloud Revolution's Microsoft 365 Customers

Eugene, Oregon – January 2021 – Nulia is pleased to announce a partnership with Cloud Revolution, who will be distributing the Nulia Works platform to their customers, enabling them to offer a unique bundle of Microsoft 365 with Nulia Works Digital Enablement.

Nulia Works is the first of its kind Digital Enablement solution that is platform-based and supports a continuous system of measurement, personalization, and engagement to drive digital skills development and usage. Nulia Works personalizes skills development, guiding users with data-driven insights and measures success by doing in the natural flow of work, enabling users to continuously attain, maintain, and use digital productivity skills. With the newest addition to Nulia Works, the Nulia Works for Teams app, users can continue developing Microsoft 365 skills right where they are – working in Teams.

"Nulia is excited to partner with Cloud Revolution and bring the Nulia Works Digital Enablement platform to their customers," says Nulia CEO Steve Zimba. "We think Nulia Works is the perfect solution for ensuring their customers unlock the full value of Teams & ALL of Microsoft 365. By providing personalized guidance to every employee, they will reach their full potential by attaining, maintaining, and using new digital skills."

"Providing customers with adoption and training solutions is core to any technology enablement," says Cloud Revolution Co-Founder, Chad McGreanor. "With Nulia Works, we have the ability to create a bundled solution that enables Microsoft 365 services and provides key insights and skills development to all end-users.”
